V. ABOUT THE GLENN SPARTZ SCHOLARSHIP

The Glen Spartz Scholarship is offered by Boating BC Association to students enrolled in the Marine Mechanical Technician Apprenticeship Program at BCIT or the Motorcycle + Marine Technician Foundation Program at Vancouver Island University. Funds for the scholarship are generated by Boating BC and our contributing partners: Mercury Marine, Honda Marine, BRP/Evinrude, Volvo Penta, Yamaha Canada and Yanmar/Land Sea Power.

Applications are reviewed by Boating BC's Marine Careers Committee; scholarships will be awarded based on each candidate's individual need, at the sole discretion of the Committee and all decisions are final. The maximum value of any single scholarship is $2,000.

Successful applicants will be issued funds directly upon approval of their application and following Boating BC's receipt of satisfactory proof of the successful applicant's enrollment in the MMT program at BCIT or MMTF program VIU. The availability and monetary value of the scholarships are subject to change, and Boating BC reserves the right to change the value and eligibility without notice.

All applications must be complete in order to be considered. Submissions in support of BCIT and VIU qualifying programs commencing October, 2018 must be received at the Boating BC office by 3:00pm August 31, 2018. Applications in support of the MMT Level Two intake at BCIT commencing January 2019 must be received by the Boating BC office by 3:00pm on November 23, 2018. Final decisions will be made within two weeks of the application deadline and only successful applicants will be contacted.

Applications may be submitted by mail, courier or email at:
